WILLIAMSON'S EXCHANGE
PITTSBURGH.

THIS new and extensive Hotel, believed to be one of the best in the United States, is now open for the accommodation of the public.—The advertiser, well known as the conductor of a public house in the cities of Baltimore and Washington, takes this method of informing those who have heretofore patronized him, and travelers generally, that his entire efforts shall be directed to the comfort, ease, and quietude of all who may favor him with their custom. He appeals to his old friends for a "passing word" to strangers who may have occasion to visit Pittsburgh, pledging himself that nothing shall be wanting, on his part, to make their sojourn as agreeable as possible. Charges will be much the same as in the other respectable Hotels. The best servants from the Atlantic cities will be immediately engaged. The proprietor respectfully invites a call.

☞The Gazette, Cincinnati, Advertiser, Louisville, Courier, New Orleans, Intelligencer, Washington, Commercial Advertiser, New York, will insert the above every other day for one month, and forward their accounts to this office within that time. Pittsburgh, Dec. 24.—tf.

JOHN H. HOPKINS, about to remove from the state of Pennsylvania, offers for sale the following real and personal property:

1st. Eight acres of ground in the Borough of Allegheny, next to the residence of Charles Brewer, Esq. and immediately opposite to his own dwelling house. This commands the fairest view of the river and city, and would admit of being advantageously subdivided.

2d. Eight acres, including the mansion, gardens, grove, and orchard, and well known as the residence of the advertiser, for the last 9 years.—This property cannot be readily exceeded in any part of our country for beauty of situation and improvement, and it would also admit of more than 40 building lots being taken from it, without infringing on the grounds belonging to the mansion. Attached to it, are coal houses, carriage house, two wells of excellent water, in one of which is a new pump, ice house, extensive wood shed, tool shed, &c. The mansion house is built in the most substantial manner, and affords accommodations of the best kind for a Seminary or large family, having been erected, and enlarged from time to time, for the use of the proprietor himself.

3d. A mortgage to a large amount on the adjoining estate of 13 acres, being considered a sure investment to any capitalist who could wait three or four years for his returns.

4th. One undivided third part of Baldwin Furnace, situate in Ligonier Valley, one mile and a half from Conemaugh River, and two miles and a half from the great Pennsylvania Canal, affording at all times ready water conveyance to Pittsburg. These works are supposed to possess superior advantages of water power, ore, stone coal, &c. if properly put in operation; and the other two thirds could be purchased on very moderate terms.

5th. A great variety of personal property, viz: —parlor and chamber furniture, household utensils, one first rate piano, two old instruments for practising; globes, maps, desks, benches, chemical apparatus, an air pump, a telescope, and other implements of education; an excellent organ, a barouche, a gig, four horses, a number of valuable cows, a plantation wagon, cart, ploughs, a large collection of farming and garden tools, &c. &c.

The above property will be sold very low, and offers a better opportunity to purchasers than is likely to occur for many years. Preferring a private sale, the proprietor will remain at home until noon of every week-day during the present month, in order to show the property to all inquirers, between the hours of 9 and 12. If not sold, it will be for rent for a term of years.

The stages are of the best kind, with careful drivers and good horses.

This line connects with the Pennsylvania Canal Line of Mail Stages, which leaves Pittsburgh daily, at 4 o'clock, A. M., for Philadelphia and Baltimore, going through in three and a half days, and giving passengers from four to six hours sleep each night. In addition to these advantages, this route has the further one of running parallel with the Grand Pennsylvania Canal, and shunning the mountains. There are also two other daily lines from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia and Baltimore, and passengers, with their baggage, will be left at any place they may designate, to take which route they prefer.

And let the work begin;
The world is pressing on without,
And we must press within—

And we who guide the public mind,

And all our deeds are good, although
The devil's at our side.

Let fly the frisket now, my boys!
Who are more proud than we—
While wait the anxious crowd without,
The force of power to see.

So pull away—none are so great,
As those who run the car:
And who have dignity like those

PUBLIC MEETING OF THE FRIENDS OF COL. JOHNSTON.

The friends of Col. Johnston met at the house of J. F. Nagle, in Wood-street, Pittsburgh, on Saturday evening, the 18th day of June, and organized by calling WILLIAM PENTLAND to the chair, and the appointment of George W. Jackson and George R. White as secretaries.

After the object of the meeting had been fully stated, the following correspondence between Col. James Johnston and the gentlemen composing the Committee of Correspondence for the city was read, and followed by sundry resolutions approving of the Col's. determination to remain on the Ticket as a candidate for the Senate, together with a letter addressed to Wm. Hays, Esq. respectfully requesting him to decline in the Colonel's favor.

TO COL. JAMES JOHNSTON.

PITTSBURGH, JUNE 15th, 1831.

SIR—The unanimity exhibited at a late meeting of the friends of Henry Clay, in placing your name in nomination for the State Senate, in conjunction with the names of Messrs. William Hays, Samuel Gormly, Hugh Davis, and Francis C. Flanegan, for the Assembly, so entirely evinces the confidence in your principles and character, that every exertion to insure your election may be confidently anticipated.

Previous to the nominations referred to, it was stated and known, that Mr. Hays had, on several occasions, when the subject had been suggested to him, opposed a nomination for the State Senate, but expressed his willingness to serve, if elected, one year longer in the House of Representatives! And it is further understood, that to you he had stated his preference for being placed on the Assembly Ticket, and his objections to being placed in nomination for the Senate. Yielding to what were deemed the wishes of Mr. Hays, the meeting placed him on the Ticket for the Legislature! Under these circumstances, it is with surprise and regret, that we learn, that Mr. Hays has accepted of the nomination for State Senate, by the anti-masonic convention; and we are led to believe that he has been induced to accept the nomination, under the belief that your present friendship will induce you to withdraw and give place to him! The pertinacious folly and perverseness of a few bitter and designing men, have brought about the result which has placed Mr. Hays in opposition to you.

It remains for you, sir, to satisfy the public, whether, under such circumstances, your personal friendship, will so far control your sense of public duty, as to induce you, at this critical and important period, to decline the contest, merely because Mr. Hays has been prevailed upon to change his mind, and accept a nomination in opposition to you?

Confidence in your principles, admiration for the patriotism which induced you to join in our Revolutionary struggle; a belief in your firmness, and a high regard for your character as a citizen, were the prevailing incentives with those who have placed you in nomination. We trust that our hopes in you will not be disappointed, and that we may be fully authorised by you, to announce to our fellow-citizens that you will abide the issue of the present contest, as the candidate of the "National Republican Party," for State Senate

The fact that Mr. Hays has consented to be placed in nomination for the same office, by those who assume the name of a party, will make no difference in the course of the friends of Mr. Clay! It belongs to the people, and not to the individual himself, to say for what post he shall be nominated; and his assent once obtained to a nomination, he ought not to withdraw it after he has been brought fairly before the public for the station in which he had declared himself willing to serve, and then create confusion, by consenting to become a candidate for an office, in which he had already declared his unwillingness to be placed! Without any reference, therefore, to the nomination of Mr. Hays for the Senate, the National Republican party will continue his name on their ticket for the State Legislature.

We sincerely hope, that you will testify your entire approbation of this course, and unite with us in our zealous efforts to produce a result that will tend to promote the welfare of the county, and the honor and prosperity of our common country

With high considerations of respect,

We are yours, &c.

COL. JOHNSTON'S REPLY

To Messrs. Allen, Curtis, Israell, Fahnestock, and other members of the Committee.

PITTSBURGH, June 16, 1831

GENTLEMEN: Your letter of yesterday has been received. I thank you for the flattering terms in which it is expressed, and for the kind interest it indicates in my behalf. At my time of life, it can hardly be supposed that I have any objects of ambition to gratify. In yielding, therefore, to the wishes of those who composed the meeting of National Republicans held on Saturday last, I am sincerely affected by the evidence, which their nomination furnishes, of a partiality, which has prompted them to overlook the claims of many better qualified than I am to serve them. I do not hope to repay their confidence by the ability or magnitude of my services if elected: but I need not assure you, of my entire concurrence in the principles proclaimed by the National Republican Party, and which, I hope and trust, by proper exertions, may triumph in the present contest.

I had heard, Gentlemen, of the circumstance to which your letter adverts—the nomination of Mr. Hays to the State Senate, by the convention which sat yesterday. This was quite as unexpected to me, as it could have been to you. Previous to his nomination to the Assembly by the national republican party, he had declared to me, and I am told that he had also stated to others, that he did not wish a nomination for the Senate: that if a candidate at all, he preferred running for the House of Representatives! Under these circumstances, his consent to accept the nomination of the antimasonic convention for the Senate, is certainly indicative of very great irresolution.

With Mr. Hays, I have long been on terms of intimacy and friendship. I regret that we should come in collision; but my fellow citizens, who have placed me in nomination, have claims upon me, which are paramount to those of private friendship. I shall, therefore, in accordance with their wishes, continue to stand as a candidate for the State Senate.

You have been pleased, Gentlemen, to allude to my services in the war of the Revolution. I was young at that period, and could do but little. My heart, however was in the contest, and I trust I have not lost sight of the great principles, for which we then contended, or the blessings which that contest has secured to our country.—Small as was the part I took in that glorious struggle, I feel that I owe to it much of the ardor with which you and others now support my nomination.

Gentlemen, I am no politician—I have never sought office—I shall not now attempt to do so.—Whatever support I may receive, will be the unsolicited offering of the people. If by their voluntary and unsought suffrages I shall be placed in the Senate, I will devote the best energies of my feeble abilities to their service.

I have the honor, to be
Gentlemen—Yours, &c.
JAMES JOHNSTON.

Whereupon, W. H. Lowrie, Esq. offered the following resolutions and letter, which were unanimously adopted—

RESOLVED—That this meeting have heard with satisfaction the letter of Col. James Johnston in reply to a letter addressed to him by the Committee of Correspondence, and that we sincerely approve of the sentiments therein expressed, and of his determination to continue to be our candidate for the State Senate.

RESOLVED—That we heartily concur in the nomination of Wm. Hays Esq. as a candidate for the Assembly, and will use our most zealous efforts to secure his election to that station; and we most sincerely regret, that he has been placed in a situation to interfere with the prior nomination and at least equally strong claims of his and our mutual friend, Col. JAMES JOHNSTON, for the State Senate. Therefore—

RESOLVED—That the following letter, signed by the Chairman and Secretaries, be addressed to Mr. Hays, respectfully requesting him to continue on the Assembly Ticket, and to decline standing a poll for the State Senate, and that the resolutions be also therewith communicated.

TO WILLIAM HAYS, ESQ.

SIR:—It is extremely regretted that your name has been placed in opposition to that of COLONEL JAMES JOHNSTON for the State Senate. It was generally understood that, if you were called to serve the country for another term, you would prefer a seat in the House of Representatives to one in the Senate. With this understanding your name was on Saturday the 11th instant, by a respectable meeting, held at the Court House, in the city of Pittsburgh, placed upon the Assembly Ticket.

It was a disinterested, generous feeling, that prompted that meeting to nominate Col. Johnston as a candidate for the Senate. He is one among the few living patriots, who served his country in the day of her adversity, and the hour of her peril: He has never sought office or been a candidate for public favor; and this mark of respect and of the people's confidence is deemed but a small tribute to his early devotion to the cause of his country.

Believing, sir, that you will properly appreciate and concur in our sentiments in reference to Col. Johnston, and believing also, that you will attribute your nomination to the Assembly, by that meeting, to our friendship and esteem for you, and to our wish to conform to your inclinations as understood by us, we earnestly, but respectfully request you to decline, in favor of Colonel Johnston, your nomination for the Senate, and allow your name to remain on the National Republican Ticket for the Assembly. For that office you may be assured of the cordial and active support of this meeting.—Very respectfully, &c.—By order of the Committee.

MR. HAYS' REPLY.

To William Pentland, Chairman, &c.

SIR:—I have received the letter, which as Chairman of a meeting recently held at J. P. Nagle's you addressed to me, and the copy of the resolutions adopted at that meeting. To this letter and those resolutions, I have, as you have requested, "given a respectful consideration." In the sentiments of respect which yourself and the meeting over which you presided, express for the truly amiable and excellent character of my friend Colonel James Johnston, I most heartily concur. A close and intimate acquaintance of many years has enabled me fully to understand and properly to estimate the guileless and unsuspecting integrity of his heart, and the mere circumstance that we may be opposing candidates will never tempt me to do him the slightest injustice. While I thus concur with you in your expressions of respect for the character of your candidate for the Senate, I must be permitted to add that this occurrence cannot and ought not to influence my conduct upon the present occasion.

A convention of delegates from almost every district in the county, assembled at the Court House, in this city, four days after Col. Johnston was nominated, and having a full knowledge of that nomination, with but one dissenting voice, selected me as their candidate for the Senate.

This same convention, with a full knowledge that the meeting of the 11th instant had placed my name upon their Assembly Ticket, formed another ticket for the Assembly from which my name was omitted. Such is the present position of affairs, and if I were now to adopt the course which you so earnestly advise, I would involve the members of the party who nominated me in inextricable confusion. By accepting your nomination, I would not only deprive the anti-masonic party of a candidate for the Senate, but would also embark whatever weight and influence I may possess, in direct hostility to their Assembly Ticket, of such base ingratitude, you may rest assured, I shall not be guilty.

The almost unanimous vote of a numerous and highly respectable convention has placed me before the people as a candidate for the Senate—by the suffrages of that people, I will stand or fall.—I thank you, sir, and through you, the meeting over which you presided, for thus early affording me an opportunity of making known my acceptance of my nomination for the Senate, and my refusal of the other.

While I thus decide, permit me to add, that a different decision could not be justified upon sound republican principles. My esteemed friend Col. James Johnston was nominated at a meeting, called, to be sure, a county meeting, assembled in haste, upon less than three days' notice.

The convention by which I was placed in nomination, consisted of delegates from almost every district in the county, selected by the yeomanry of the respective wards or townships, after a regular and public previous notice. Under such circumstances, were I to withdraw, the will of the many would be subjected to that of the few—to this, I cannot consent.

I am not disposed to deny your "wish to conform to my inclinations" in nominating me for the Assembly, but must be permitted to say that the meeting has been very unsuccessful in their endeavors to ascertain those inclinations. It is true that I would originally have preferred a seat in the Assembly, but my friends at an early period had expressed a wish that I should be a candidate for the Senate.

On the evening of the 7th instant, in compliance with the more earnest and concentrated expression of the wishes of my friends, I consented to serve in the Senate, if elected, and from that time, had no "inclination" to serve in the Assembly. On the 8th, 9th, and 10th instants, this assent became generally known, and if no member of the meeting held on the 11th instant had knowledge of this matter, I can only say that they were peculiarly unfortunate in collecting the prevailing rumors of the day. I remain, respectfully your's, &c.

WILLIAM HAYS.

New Safety Coach.—There has been exhibited lately a new safety coach, the invention of Mr. Stafford, of Liverpool, which appears really to deserve the name it bears. The wheels and body of this vehicle are similar to those generally used in all coaches; but the springs and manner of suspension are not outwardly visible, so that the carriage appears simple in construction, and unaccompanied by heavy iron work. The principle may be applied to any description of carriage without any additional expense of building. The body of the coach, in place of resting upon springs below, is poised upon two upright supporters, rising from the beds and axles, and passing up between the body and the boots. The tops of these supporters are surmounted by elliptic springs, on which the body is suspended in such a manner, that on meeting inequalities on the road, it has freedom to adjust its centre of gravity, and thus, by throwing its weight on the rising wheels, prevents the liability of being upset. The sense of danger which is often attended with lamentable results, is avoided, for the body of the coach maintains its vertical position, in the manner of a mariner's compass, so that those inside may not be aware of the wheels have varied from one to three feet.

INDIAN POPULATION IN THE UNITED STATES.

The following statement may not be unacceptable to our readers, at the present time, when the condition and future welfare of the Indians residing within the limits of the states and territories, are exciting uncommon interest, and have given rise to much speculation. The statements may not be minutely correct. We have endeavored, from the documents in our possession, to make them as correct as they possibly can be, considering the difficulties which have always existed in ascertaining the number of each tribe of Indians. It is our belief that we are not far from the facts, respecting the actual population and names of the Indian tribes in the United States and territories.

Choctaws	20,000
Snakes	20,000
Creeks	20,000
Cherokees	15,000
Black Feet	15,000
Chippewas	15,000

Algonquins	3,000
36 small tribes	41,600
West of the Rocky Mountains	80,000
Total in the U. States and territories	316,000

Of this number of Indians, there are in Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and

The remainder are in the organized territories of the United States, and west of the Mississippi river. Of the number of Indians stated to reside in the state of New York, a number of them have removed, lately, to Green Bay, and, by a late treaty, the Indians still residing in the state of Mississippi, are to remove shortly to the other side of the Mississippi.

Connected with this subject are the following statements, showing the number of acres of land and Cherokee Indians in the following states:

MURDER!

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Sentinel, dated Jericho, Duplin County, June 1, 1831.

"On Sunday last, a murder was committed in this neighborhood, which has created a very unusual sensation. About 11 o'clock on that day, Miss Nancy Boyet, daughter of a very respectable widow, left her house with the intention of visiting Mr. Price's family, who live at the distance of a mile from her mother's. When night approached, and her daughter still absent, Mrs. Boyet became uneasy, and set out with the hope of meeting her on the way. Her feelings may more easily be imagined than described, when she found on her arrival at Mr. Price's, that her daughter had not been there that day. She alarmed the neighbors—a company went forth, and after a diligent search they found the mangled corpse of the unfortunate victim in the adjoining pond. Her body was shockingly bruised, and her throat was cut to the neck bone! From appearances, the murder must have been perpetrated at a distance of two hundred yards from the pond in which the body was found, and the resistance must have been desperate. The ground and bushes at the place of conflict, were much trodden and broken, and some lightwood limbs that were on the spot, appeared to have been used by the monster in completing his designs. The young lady's combs were also found broken and scattered on the ground. No discovery leading to the detection of the murderer has yet been made, and with the exception of its fatal result, the whole transaction is yet a mystery to the neighborhood. It must have taken place about noon, in a thickly inhabited settlement, and on the public road leading from Whitehall to Fayetteville. An inquest was held, and a verdict pronounced of 'rape and murder, by some person unknown.' Should any thing further transpire concerning this lamentable deed, I shall take an early opportunity of communicating it."—Newbern N. C. Sentinel, June 10.

From the National Gazette.

We have often remonstrated against the interference of judges in party politics, as party zealots. The subjoined remarks of the London Courier show what view is taken of the subject in England:—

"We regret exceedingly to hear that one of his Majesty's Judges has, with a total disregard of decency towards his Sovereign, and of the duty of his station, taken an active part in favor of the Anti-Reform Candidates at Cambridge. We cannot conceive any thing more improper in a Judge than an interference in politics, no matter on what side, for how can such a man be fit to preside on trials of a political nature? The avowed bias of his mind would necessarily produce distrust either in the defendant or the prosecutor; and, however just his decision may be, it would, nevertheless, appear to a portion of the public at least, as the prejudiced opinion of a political partisan. Let us just suppose the Editor of a liberal paper at Cambridge prosecuted before such a Judge for an article written during the excitement of the election, and ask whether he could expect a fair trial? When the situation of a Judge was rendered independent of the Crown, the intention was, that there should be no temptation for his becoming a political partisan in favor of the Court, and that intention was conceived in the best spirit of freedom, but it never could have been meant that a Judge should become a political partisan against the Government, and at the same time against the liberties of the people."

UNITED STATES TERRITORY.—Bradbury computes the area of the Mississippi territory at 1,334, 779 miles, or 860,658,563 acres. It is, therefore, eleven times as extensive as Great Britain and Ireland put together. The Chinese Empire itself, taken at 800,000,000 acres, falls far short, in superficial extent, of the United States, which contain 1,205,635,830 acres.

In men there is a lump upon the windpipe formed by the thyroid cartilage, which is not to be seen in women. An Arabian fable says, that this is part of the original apple that has stuck in the man's throat by the way; but that the woman swallowed her part of it down.

Has thrice been rent by cruel man,
And thrice took legal stitches.
But who can blame the tender maid,
That she should fly to legal aid
To help to mend the breaches?
For as the costly stuffs of old
Were stitched with threads of shining gold,
So here 'tis only golden threads can
Stitch up the heart of Julia Ann.

A FIRST RATE FARM FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale that very valuable Farm, situated in Crow's Bottom, New Sewickly township, Beaver county, at present occupied by Michael O'Byrne, about 23 miles from Pittsburgh, 5 miles from Economy, and about the same distance from Beavertown; containing 215 acres and 84 perches and allowance. The tract has a front of upwards of half a mile on the Ohio river, and considerably more then one half of it is rich river bottom, of almost inexhaustible fertility; the remainder is well timbered with hickory, walnut, oak, &c. Upwards of one hundred acres are cleared, and under good fence, and the whole is capable of being made one of the most profitable farms in the western country, being well watered by Crow's run, and several small streams emptying into the Ohio river. On the premises there is a large and commodious stone house, fronting on the mail stage road from Pittsburgh to Beaver, 80 by 50 feet, built of squared stone in range work, in the best manner, intended for a public house, but admitting of being improved into a first rate mansion house. There is also on the premises a tolerable good barn, cattle sheds, and out houses, with a good bearing apple orchard, and a variety of other fruit trees, and a plentiful supply of stone coal.

For terms, which will be reasonable, apply to the subscriber, corner of Ferry and Second streets, Pittsburgh, or to Ephram Pentland, Esq. at his office in the Diamond, or to Michael Conway, living on the adjoining tract, who will show the premises to any person wishing to purchase. A good and sufficient title, in fee simple, clear of all incumbrance, will be made to purchasers, and possession will be delivered on the first of April next.

THE THOROUGH-BRED TURF HORSE,

PIRATE.

THE owner of this fine horse has consented to send him to Pittsburgh on the tenth of next month. It will be late in the season, but it is the only arrangement that could be made to obtain his services for those who may be disposed to breed from a horse in whose veins flows the very richest blood of this or any other country.

He is a four mile horse, and his character for speed and bottom was established in his celebrated race of twelve miles with Betsy Ransom and others, at Norfolk, Va., in October, 1827, in less time than that taken in the great match-race between Eclipse and Sir Henry. The following certificate from Colonel Johnson establishes his pedigree:—

PIRATE, by Sir Archie, dam Lady Hambleton, by Sir Arthur, grand dam Bet Bounce—(Bet Bounce was considered one of the best brood mares in Virginia: she was the dam of the three celebrated racers, Coquette, Jennet and Arab)—by Sir Harry, great grand dam by Medley, g. g. grand dam by Mark Anthony, g. g. g. grand dam by Jolly Roger, g. g. g. g. grand dam the imported mare Jenny Camron. Sir Arthur, the sire of Lady Hambleton, who was the dam of Pirate, was raised by me: he was gotten by Sir Archie, out of Green's old Celar mare, who was the dam of Maria, commonly called Bay Yankee, who was a distinguished racer of her day, and one of the best four mile mares that I ever trained. The Celar mare was by the old imported Janus.

W. R. JOHNSON.

Richmond, January 3, 1829.

Pirate is a chesnut sorrel, 15 hands 3 inches high, and 8 years old. His stable will be in the city or its immediate vicinity, and notice will be given of the terms of his service.

BYAM'S CHEMICAL EMBROCATION;

OR, LIQUID OPPODELDOC.

THIS article is considered by the first Physicians in the United States to rank higher than any other composition in existence, for the following complaints, viz: Bruises, Sprains, Gout, Rheumatism, Cramp, Numbness, Weakness or Stiffness of the Neck or Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Stings of Insects, Vegetable Poisons, &c. &c. It is applied both to man and beast.

BYAM'S CELEBRATED GENUINE PHYSICAL DROPS,

Preventive against Fevers, composed of roots and herbs—recommended by the first families in the city of Philadelphia.

This medicine is almost a sovereign remedy against the Fever and Ague: if taken in season, it will discharge bile from the stomach, cure coughs and colds and weakness of the breast: it will purify the blood, create an appetite, and cure the most inveterate headache. For worms in children, it is a most efficacious medicine. It is much recommended in cases of the measles, &c.: and it is acknowledged that many lives have been preserved by the use of this medicine, in cases of the yellow fever. Observe that none are genuine without the stamp on the cork of the only proprietor, E. BYAM, genuine, and each label signed with his own hand writing, E. Byam. Price per bottle 25 cents.

☞This certifies that myself, wife, and one of my children, were afflicted with the fever and ague for several weeks, and applied the usual remedies, but to no effect. Having heard of Byam's Physical Drops, I had the curiosity to give it a trial, and by the use of two bottles, we were all cured in one week's time. JACOB PETERSON.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1, 1831.

☞Considering it a duty I owe to mankind, I hereby declare that, having been afflicted with dyspepsia through the heat of the summer months in 1830, and not being able to attend to business for much of the time, I tried many resources and much medicine to no relief; and hearing of Byam's Drops, I immediately tried a bottle, which relieved me so much that I purchased a second; and by the use of two bottles I was able to attend to my business, and have remained in good health ever since! The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1831.

Mr. Hays has directed us to strike his name from the National Republican Ticket.

We invite the attention of Bridge Builders to the advertisement of James L. Bowman, Secretary of the company for erecting a bridge over the Monongahela river at Brownsville. We feel much pleased with the prospect of this great improvement being at length completed. The want of it has been long seriously felt. We consider this bridge to be strictly a national object, and as such, that it should have been erected by the General Government: this, however, could not at present be expected, and the enterprising citizens of the vicinity have acted wisely in undertaking it themselves. We wish them entire success and handsome dividends.

The following paragraph, from the Blairsville Republican, is going the round of the newspapers, and we are really surprised that the inaccuracy of the statement has not been noticed:

"About thirty boats arrive at and depart from this place weekly, heavily laden with merchandise and produce. It is stated that 165,000 tons of agricultural products have been sent from Pittsburgh alone to Philadelphia, since the opening of the navigation this spring. 50,000 tons of this amount were forwarded in one week."

165,000 tons forwarded from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia!—Now allow thirty tons to a boat, and here are cargoes for 5,500 boats: allow two tons to a wagon, and here are loads for eighty-two thousand five hundred wagons. The account says that thirty boats arrive and depart weekly, and the canal has been open about eleven weeks: at that rate, 330 would have arrived and departed this season—so that these three hundred and thirty boats must have been good sized vessels of 500 tons burthen. But to try how far credulity would go, the account adds that 50,000 tons were forwarded in one week!! Now, give to each boat thirty tons, and we have here no less than sixteen hundred and sixty-six boats departing from this place in one week!

James S. Craft.—It has frequently been our unpleasant duty to engage in controversies with the editor of the Statesman about this cheap patriot: to-day we give an extract from that paper, in which Mr. Butler expresses as humble an opinion of the character of Mr. Craft as we ever entertained. We republish this paragraph, as an act of justice to ourselves, and to satisfy our patrons that the opinions which we have held in relation to the Jackson candidate for the Senate were well founded.

"James S. Craft.—This gentleman is now up for the Senate, on the whole-hog ticket. By way of distinction, we shall denominate him "THE FENCE CANDIDATE"—and we shall next week clearly show, to our friends and his former supporters, that he has earned this pre-eminent distinction, and highest post on the fence, by a submission to his enemies, which is as insincere and degrading, as his desertion of his friends has been ungenerous, unmerited and unprincipled.—We are aware that this will be considered strong language, coming as it does from us. But 'tis the sense of wrong we feel that prompts it. Who but Mr. Craft could have been induced to forego his self-respect, the pride of opinion, and the consciousness of having possessed, and deservedly, the respect of such men as have supported and sustained him? Two years was he denounced as a Clay man! Yet was he elected as such, and his party exulted in the mortification of those who had assailed him! He has courted the embrace of his enemies,—deserted his personal and political friends, and is now a member of a Jackson Hickory Club!! And we are told that he now expects that party to confide in and trust him."

In the ensuing contest, we have determined to give our support to William Hays, as State Senator, and intend, in our paper, to give our reasons for this course. By giving him our support, we wish it to be well understood, that we have no intention to treat our truly excellent and esteemed friend Colonel Johnston with the slightest disrespect. We know too well and value too highly the amiability and excellence of his character, to permit ourselves even to think slightly of him. Indeed, if one word against him would secure the election of Mr. Hays, that word would never be uttered by us. There are none among the supporters of the Colonel who have more reason to respect and venerate the character and services of our revolutionary patriots than ourselves. We have an intimate knowledge of the sufferings and services of the heroes of '76, and we have been habituated from our infancy to respect those who are living, and to revere the memory of those who are dead. If, then, we believed that there was a chance of defeating James S. Craft, by supporting Col. Johnston in preference to William Hays, we would undertake that service with a hearty good will—with a zeal and energy which we rarely bring to such a contest. In his support, if there were a prospect of success, our whole heart would be embarked.

Other persons may think differently: many persons may perhaps suppose that Colonel Johnston may be elected. The editor of the Statesman has declared that the contest will be between him and James S. Craft. If we thought so, we would cheerfully abandon William Hays, and adhere to the Colonel; but we cannot rely upon the predictions of Mr. Butler: we fear that he will again prove a false prophet.

Last year, our readers will all recollect, there were five candidates for Congress, viz. Denny, Gilmore, Ayres, Stewart, and Forward. Our readers will also recollect, that there was then a very great desire to defeat John Gilmore, as there is now to defeat James S. Craft. Last year, the editor of the Statesman was active in bringing out Mr. Forward, as he is now in bringing out Col. Johnston. Last year, we were willing to support Mr. Forward, if we could have persuaded ourselves that he could be elected over Gilmore. Now we are willing to support Col. Johnston, if we could be persuaded that he could be elected over James S. Craft. Last year, on the 6th October, the editor of the Statesman, in that paper, stated that personal observation had satisfied him that Mr. Forward would be elected for one; that it was uncertain who would succeed along with him, but that Ayres and Stewart had not the slightest chance of success. We were misled by the confident tone of our neighbor: we were in doubt whether Forward might not run higher than Gilmore, although we rather inclined to think that Ayres' chance was best. We therefore took no active part between Forward and Ayres. The suggestion that it was uncertain whether Denny or Gilmore would succeed with Forward, was so extravagant that it was laughed at. There never was a moment's doubt as to the success of Denny; the only question was which of the other four would succeed with him. Well, the election at length came on, and Mr. Forward, who, according to the predictions of the editor of the Statesman, would be the highest on the list, was the very lowest, Mr. Denny beating him more than two thousand six hundred votes—almost two to one; Mr. Gilmore beating him about eleven hundred votes, and Ayres and Stewart each beating him about four hundred votes.

Such was the result of the former election and Mr. Butler's prediction. Upon that occasion we placed rather more reliance upon his judgment than upon our own: we are now satisfied that, if we possess a little less knowledge of the district than our neighbor, we possess a little more coolness of judgment. Our own impression was that Mr. Forward would be the lowest but one, but the confident tone of Mr. Butler induced us to distrust our own impressions. We now fully believe that if we had come out decidedly in favor of Ayres, Gilmore would have been left at home. We are assured that, if it had been suspected that Mr. Ayres would run so high in Allegheny, and Mr. Forward so low as he did, Beaver county would have given the former gentleman votes enough to elect him.

Having been once misled by reliance upon the political judgment of our neighbor, we are now resolved to trust to our own. We believe that William Hays can and will defeat James S. Craft, and that Colonel Johnston cannot. For this reason we will support the former gentleman.

FROM BELFAST.

By the Arrival of the ship Atlantic, from Belfast, we were furnished, says the New York Daily Advertiser of Saturday last, with the perusal of the Belfast Commercial Chronicle, of the 16th of May: for this we were indebted to the politeness of Capt. Popham. Of course no later news could be expected from the continent by this arrival. We give a few paragraphs.

Belfast, May 16th.—It will be seen from the subjoined extracts, that the accounts from Poland are still of a vague description, and rumors, as usual, take the place of authentic information. By one statement it is alleged that Warsaw has been taken; and by another that an insurrection has broken out in Russia; but we need hardly add that there is no truth in these reports. There is, however, no doubt of the facts that the Poles have hitherto resisted the Russians with noble and unexpected bravery; and that, in their struggle for independence, they have the good wishes, at least, of every country in Europe.

Elections.—We refer our readers to the accounts from every part of England and Ireland, respecting the General Election, by which it will be seen that the cause of reform is generally successful, such members alone being popular as pledge themselves to the ministerial measure.

Ireland.—In the county of Down, Lord Castlereagh has been so far successful as to attain, on Saturday, 140 ahead of Mr. Crawford. Very different causes, however, than his opposition to ministers on the reform have led to this; and we shall not be surprised to find, from his lordship's sagacity, and the knowledge he has now acquired of the public feeling on the subject, that he will yet both speak and vote for reform.

This day our county election will commence.—There is a contest expected, Sir John Byng having started on an invitation from a considerable number of independent freeholders, who have pledged him their support, because of his being an out and out reformer. What the gallant general might have achieved, had he been earlier in the field, we pretend not to say; but as things now are, we should think that his chance of getting the battle is not very great. Our two members rank among their supporters almost every resident gentleman in the county, including Sir J. Bruce, Sir F. Macnaughten, Messrs. Richardson, Cronnie, McCausland, Gage, Lyle, Alexander, Col. Packenham, Stewart Dawson, Graves, Olphert, Ash, Hunter, &c. To these may be added the other great proprietors, the Marquis of Lothian, Earl of Clancarty, Lord Gargagh, Sir Thomas Packenham, Col. Chicester, Lady G. Ponsonby, &c.

A king's ship is daily expected in the Shannon, to prevent any intercouse by water between the insurgents of Clare and the peasantry in the county of Limerick. On Sunday a party of the Terrys crossed from Clare to the county of Limerick, and while the people were at mass, the invaders charged from house to house, plundering them of pistols, swords, &c. and re-embarked.

From the New York Journal of Commerce.

DEATH BY HYDROPHOBIA.

The subject of this notice was a little girl by the name of Johnson, two and a half years old. On the 20th of April last, a small dog passed into a yard, 138 Chrystie street, where she was at play, and seizing her by the nose, drew her to the ground. Before he was beaten off, he bit and lacerated the nose very severely. The dog immediately ran home into a neighboring street, and his master, after learning the injury he had done, despatched him the same day. Particular inquiries were made whether the dog had manifested any hydrophobic symptoms, but nothing could be learned, save the fact that he had bitten two children, one of whom still continues well. This act of violence was referred wholly to the dog having been irritated by the boys in the street. The child in question soon recovered of her wounds, and continued perfectly well until Tuesday afternoon last, (14th June,) when she complained of pain in the head and stomach. The mother prepared an infusion of senna for it, supposing its illness to arise from some derangement of the stomach; but whenever she attempted to administer it, the child would shudder and become convulsive. Indeed, the first circumstance that attracted the attention of the mother, was the peculiar actions of the child, whenever it drank, for during the afternoon it was thirsty, and asked for water, but when it swallowed the water, it would tremble, and choke, and attempt to spit it out.

Early on Wednesday morning, Dr. Mead, of Cliff street, from whom we received the particulars, was called to attend the child. He found her lying quietly on her bed, cheerful and intelligent; for the child was remarkably sprightly for its age, and seemed pleased with the idea of being made well. Said she had no pain except a little in the stomach; allowed her person to be examined freely; but when the nose was touched, she would recoil with a shudder; and when it was pressed, she would thrust out her tongue, with a shriek, and seemed to catch for breath, as if suffocated.—This was not incidental, for it was tried several times with the same result. The cicatrix of the wound appeared perfectly well, as there was no appearance of disease or discoloration of the part. She was asked to drink some water. She seemed thirsty, and readily assented. A cup was brought, and she rose in bed and grasped it with both hands, and filled her mouth; but in an instant she dashed the cup from her, and seemed to spit or blow the water from her mouth, with a force and sound as if it were ejected from a heated crucible; and fell upon the bed in horrible convulsions. In a few moments she was quiet and composed again. These experiments were forbidden, as they added greatly to the sufferings of the child. Several attempts were made to administer medicine, but unsuccessfully, for every effort to swallow even the smallest quantity would bring on a spasm, and a distressing constriction of the throat, which would eject it from her mouth. The dread of water continued to increase during the day (Wednesday,) and at evening, if a person were to approach her with a tumbler of water, it would bring on a recurrence of the paroxysms. In the course of the evening the spasms would occur spontaneously, with increased power and frequency, until she exhibited all the horrors of this fearful malady. The eyes wild and protruded, gnashing of the teeth until the tongue became lacerated; frequent spittings and foaming at the mouth; retching which was peculiar. It would return at regular intervals of a few moments, attended with but one effort, as if the stomach were suddenly affixed with a spasm, and forcibly expelled through the constricted larynx, a little frothy mucus. Then again the horrid convulsions—shrieks, not to be described, until she became gradually exhausted, and expired yesterday morning, forty hours after the invasion of the disease, and fifty-seven days after the infliction of the wounds. Several physicians saw the child, and no doubt was left on their minds as to the nature of the disease.

Europe.—The accounts from the seat of war come through so many channels, each imparting its peculiar bias, that we get little satisfaction, and less certainty, from their perusal. The Poles appear to have gained many advantages in the skirmishes of outposts, and in the conflicts of partisan corps. Much hope too may be derived from the simply prolonging the war—for the distress of famine and sickness must press much the most heavily on the Russians, without stores in an enemy's country, and drawing their support from precarious foraging, harassed by constant skirmishing, and worn down by perpetual marching and countermarching, always in the presence of a formidable, active and skilful enemy. It is evident that Skrzynecki is a master of strategie, and that thus far he has completely out-manœuvered the confident Balkan-passer. But notwithstanding all the successes of the Poles, there is something ominous in the quiet of Russia. Her pride—the integrity of her great empire—is attacked—and we see no indications of extraordinary preparations—no great armies mustering—no gathering of military equipments—but an apparently perfect and confident contentment with the efforts already made to subjugate Poland. Neither does she appear to be strengthening herself against internal commotion. For aught we can see, she is every where quiet and satisfied. We know not what it portends.—New-Haven Adv.

Liberia.—A paragraph was copied into our last paper, from the Salem Gazette, stating that intelligence had been received from Liberia, via. Port Praya, that sixty-three of the emigrants who went out in the Volador, have died since their arrival in Africa. Upon comparing dates we are satisfied that the report must be incorrect. There is a merchant from Liberia, now in this city, who left Africa one month after the Volador arrived, at which time the emigrants were in the enjoyment of excellent health. In addition, we have this morning received the African Repository for June, in which the editor announces the receipt of letters, by the frigate Java, from the Colonial Agent, Dr. Mechlin, and the Colonial Physician, Dr. Todson. These gentlemen say that "the health and prospects of the settlement are highly encouraging." Dr. Todson states that out of a large number of patients for whom he had been called to prescribe, only one had died, and his death occurred in consequence of a stay of six months among the natives, exposed to deadly nocturnal exhalations.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

A Shift for a Dinner.—The following "latest" mode of raising a dinner was developed yesterday afternoon, in the Police office. Two well dressed colored girls, one named Mary Anne de Hart, aged about 15 years, the other Hannah Jackson, aged about 16, had been in the habit for some time, of watching about the bakers' shops in the upper part of the city, to discover what dishes of meat, pies, &c. &c. were sent from the neighboring families to be baked: having acquired the necessary knowledge, they attended at the different bake houses a short time before the dinner hour, presented two or three cents, the usual charge of baking, and demanded the dish they thought best fit to take. The owners imagining that those youngsters were the servants of the person who sent the article to be baked, gave the dish without any question.

On Tuesday they called at the bake house of Mr. Deklyne, 45 Christopher st. and presenting two cents, asked for the large household loaf which had been sent there in the forenoon to be baked; it was immediately given to them. Yesterday they went to the bake house of Mr. Nathl. Purdy, 259 Spring street, and asked for a large round of beef belonging to a neighboring family, which was sent to be baked, and this too was given to them. They then went to another baker's, and asked for a pie which was baked there, and this they also received; from thence they went again to Mr. Deklyne's, but he having learned some of their feats, arrested them, and they are now in Bridewell to take their trial on the charges.—N. Y. Enquirer.

We called, on Wednesday morning, at the store of Mr. Given, to see a piece of Brussels carpeting just finished at the factory of that gentleman in the neighborhood of this place. We believe it is the first piece of that description of carpeting he has manufactured, and his success in the experiment is of the most flattering nature. In point of beauty and the quality of the fabric, so far as we are able to judge, we have never seen it excelled by the imported article. It is desired that persons feeling an interest in the success of our domestic manufactures, and disposed to enterprise and public spirit, shall call and judge for themselves of this article.—Carlisle Republican.

We have much satisfaction in announcing, that the newly invented Adams Printing Press, is now in successful operation in this office; and we feel that it is due to the talents and ingenuity of the maker, Mr. Phineas Dow, of Boston, (Mass.) to acknowledge our decided approbation of this important desideratum in the art of Printing. Among the advantages appertaining to the use of this machine, may be stated,—the improved quality of the work, which will be found more uniform in color, and strength of impression, than that produced on newspapers by the ordinary means;—the work is performed with less labor, in a much shorter time; and it enables us to present our readers an enlaged sheet, affording greater facilities to our advertising friends, and the means of increasing the miscellaneous contents of the American Daily Advertiser.—Poulson.

The Washington Journal of Saturday last says, Mr. Berrien has, we are informed, been in form as well as substance, dismissed from his office of Attorney General. If report be true, the manner of this proceeding was brief and uncourteous.—Poulson, June 20.

The British and Foreign Bible Society held its annual meeting yesterday at Exeter Hall, which was crowded to excess by an immense number of well-dressed people, amongst whom were many ladies. Lord Bexley took the chair about 11 o'clock. The report was read by the Secretary, and it was highly gratifying to find there was a very considerable increase in its pecuniary means since last meeting, of (as we understood) not less than £10,400. The sum raised in furtherance of the views of the Society, appears for the last year to have been £95,424 2s. 3d., and the gross sum received £7,024,737. The Society had distributed bibles, &c. in different languages, to all parts of the world, and amongst others, a large quantity, on an application, had been furnished to 140 regiments of the Prussian army.—London Courier, May 9.

Progressive Increase of Duty.—After the 30th instant, the Tariff provides that the duties on the subjoined articles are to be increased as follows:

Flax, from 45 to 50 dollars per ton;
Hemp, from 55 to 60 dollars per ton;
Indigo, from 30 to 40 cents per pound;
Sail Duck, from 10 to 10½ cents per square yd.

Rapid Improvement.—A tract of land, situated on the margin of Lake Ponchartrain, whence the Railroad from New Orleans reaches the Lake, has, in consequence of the Railroad, and the establishment there of a port of entry, been divided into town lots by Mr. Milne, the proprietor, and recently sold at auction in New Orleans. The sales amount to $259,247. It is said that the site of the town, which is called Milneburg, and a body of land adjoining, extending about nine miles towards Lake Borgine, was bought of the Spanish Government for $105.

An alarm has been sounded in various newspapers from different parts of the country, summoning the liege citizens or New England to unite their efforts for the suppression of Cock Roaches. The locust plague of Egypt, it is supposed, would not be more terible than the unchecked inroads of these creatures, which are said to be more numerous during the present season, than at any previous point of time. We are happy to be able to announce the discovery of a method of destroying those intruders, at once simple and effective. It is as follows:—procure from the apothecary or herb woman, a moderate quantity of that odoriferous vegetable called Poke Root: Boil it in water until the juices are extracted, and mingle the liquid with good West India molasses, or if the spirit of patriotism be extravagant, with molasses from New Orleans; spread the liquid in large platters or soup plates, in the kitchen, pantry, closet or washhouse, or whatever apartment may have been the subject of invasion, and the enemy will be found slain in heaps, lying by hundreds and fifties, before the following morning.

A gentleman to whom we are indebted for this information, states that he slaughtered 575 cockroaches in a single night, by means of the Poke Root and Molasses, and that the root which had been boiled being thrown into a closet, thickly invested by the enemy, the place was quitted entirely in a few days, great numbers being left dead upon the field.—Boston Gazette.

A new instrument for extracting teeth has been shown us by the inventor, Mr. A. C. Castle, Surgeon Dentist of this city. It is so constructed as to elevate the tooth perpendicularly from the socket, without making use of the contiguous teeth for that purpose, by which there is hazard of injuring them, and without pressure on the gums, by which pain is occasioned. So far as we are able to judge, it seems to us ingeniously contrived to answer its design.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Mobile, June 2.—The ship Splendid of 642 tons, whose magnitude justifies her name, commanded by Captain Britton, cleared to day for Liverpool, having on board two thousand and ninety-nine bales of cotton, amounting in weight to 853,643 lbs. averaging, consequently, over 406 pounds to the bale. Her freight money amounted to about four thousand one hundred pounds sterling, premium of exchange included, or about eighteen thousand two hundred dollars.

A most extensive robbery of jewelry took place in London on the evening of the 13th ult. The residence of Lady Nelson, No. 23, Portman-square, was entered early in the evening, while the family were at dinner, and robbed of jewelry, valued at upwards of £10,000. It is remarked:—"The most fortunate part of the occurrence is, that a most beautiful and valuable aigrette of diamonds, which had been given to the late Lord Nelson by the Grand Seignior, valued at least at £20,000, was missed by the thieves, in consequence of Lady Nelson having, after the last drawing-room but one, wrapped it up in a piece of brown paper, and thrown it in a corner of the trunk. If the thieves had made their appearance directly after the drawing-room was held, they might have obtained possession of jewels which had been worn by Lady Nelson, and were valued at £80,000."

The Bow of William Tell.—Among other places pointed out to strangers as worthy of notice, (at Zurich,) I visited the arsenal, where one may receive a lesson of humility, in attempting to wield the swords, and to carry the armor, borne by the warriors of other days. I, of course, handled the bow, said to be the bow of William Tell; and the identical arrow that pierced the apple is also shown. I cannot conceive of what materials the sinews of that distinguished patriot were made; for the degenerate men of our time are obliged to use a machine with the power of the lever, to draw the cord even half way to the point at which the arrow is discharged. There is a vast collection of ancient armor preserved, and modern equipments for more than all the able bodied men in the canton.—Switzerland, France, and the Pyrenees; by Derwent Conway.

From the London Courier of 14th May we select the following jeu d'esprit:—

"A gentleman having heard another reported victory by the Russians, said he was sorry to hear the Poles were going on so badly at Warsaw, though it was consoling to reflect that the Polls were getting on admirably in England."

Sir Walter Scott.—We fear that the accounts we have had of the illness of Sir Walter Scott, are but too well founded. The London Court Journal of the latest date says:

"It is with infinite concern that we announce in contradiction to the newspaper statements, that this distinguished writer and excellent man still languishes in a very precarious state. He has had an attack of decided apoplectic tendency.—Mr. Lockhart left town for Abbotsford at the beginning of the week, immediately on the receipt of a letter from his lady, containing the alarming intelligence of her illustrious parent's illness.—The accounts have been rather more favorable within these few days. Major Scott, we believe, is still in town.

We understand the Grand Capital Prize of $60,000 dollars was sold by Mr. GEORGE A. COOK, Lottery and Exchange Broker of this city. This we believe is the largest prize ever sold in the Western Country.—Statesman.

Sixty-two citizens of New York invited Mr. Van Buren, a few days since, to a public dinner—and of these sixty-two, forty-eight were office holders.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness. Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

UTICA, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.
